PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

Please enter the following amendments and consider the following remarks.

IN THE CLAIMS:

Please amend the claims as follows:

- 10. (ONCE AMENDED) A medium storing instructions for use in [reassigning] assigning functions on a remote control device having a plurality of function keys and a memory storing a [first] remote control function command [and a second remote control function command], the instructions performing steps comprising:
- checking for a specification of [the first function command, the first function command being mapped to] at least one function key selected from the plurality of function keys;
  - checking for a specification of the [second] remote control function command;
  - checking for an entry of [a reassignment] an assignment command code; and
  - in response to the entry of the [reassignment] assignment command code, the specification of the [first function command] at least one function key and the specification of the [second] remote control function command, mapping the [second] remote control function command to the at least one function key [thereby effectively reassigning functions of the remote control device].
11. (ONCE AMENDED) The medium as recited in claim 10, wherein the remote control is adapted to control a plurality of devices and wherein the step of checking for the specification of
